The time for actual use of the new GFE has finally arrived and it is clear that there has been a paradigm shift in the knowledge required to survive in this industry. For the first time ever, loan originators and processors have to know exactly what will be collected at the closing table and escrow officers need to understand the intricacies of the GFE. From start to finish, it is truly a collaborative effort for all parties to reach the closing table and still remain profitable. This webinar will provide a view from the trenches. We will share the common mistakes currently being made and show you the proper way to complete the GFE line by line.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Explanation of which fees should be disclosed in each GFE block
- Breakdown of the tolerance buckets
- Changed circumstances that allow for re-disclosure of the GFE
- Line-by-line GFE analysis
- Errors commonly made in the first few months and potential solutions
- Analysis to bridge the disclosure requirements between the GFE and HUD-1
